

CATALOGUE FOR PHILANTHROPY

GIVE THE GIFT OF PHILANTHROPY

every penny you donate will go to the charities you choose

Passion for Learning is honored to be featured in the Catalogue for Philanthropy: Greater Washington 2007-08

We hope you'll spend time this holiday season taking a trip with your family—children, friends, loved ones, neighbors—through Greater Washington's Catalogue for Philanthropy.

The Catalogue is a window onto the wide world of small charities, where day after day people work to do good, making the Washington region, and the world, a better place to live.

Learn about our environmental, cultural, educational, human services, and international groups. Read about small, local charities—the ones you might not otherwise find. And consider investing: gifts to small charities can be transformational, for them and for you.

Philanthropy is an opportunity to express your finest values and impulses, and to find that the experience nourishes your sense of community, and your common cause with others, during this special season and throughout the year.

Give online at catalogueforphilanthropy-dc.org

Catalogue for Philanthropy: Greater Washington, Inc. is a 501c(3) non-profit organization
Photo: Karen O Brown, courtesy of DC Arts and Humanities Education Collaborative and Peabody Early Childhood Center

